TAYLOR-BIVENS WEDDING

WAILUKU, Maui, April 9.—One of the prettiest weddings ever seen on Maui took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Taylor, on Saturday evening, April 2nd, when Miss Ettie P. Taylor was united in marriage to Mr. Elmer Russell Bivens of Palo Alto.

Promptly at a quarter of eight to the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played on the piano by Mrs. H. A. Baldwin the wedding party marched on to the spacious lanai of the Taylor residence. The groom was accompanied by his best man, Mr. Alfred S. Taylor, a brother of the bride-to-be, followed by Rev. Cannon Ault, entered first then came the very pretty bridesmaid, Miss Maybelle E. Taylor with the dainty little flower girl, Myrtle E. Taylor both arrayed in pink and looking lovely. Miss Maybelle carrying a bouquet of beautiful La France roses and Myrtle a basket of pink carnations and maidenhair fern; next the maid of honor dressed in a beautifully embroidered white dress carrying a bouquet of light pink roses and maidenhair fern; then the bride who looked very winsome and sweet in her beautiful white gown of liberty satin, carrying a shower bouquet of white roses, violets and maidenhair fern, entered on the arm of her father.

Under an immense wedding veil of beautiful white carnations and ferns the happy couple stood and were joined together in holy wedlock.

The lanai was certainly a most beautiful picture. Under the artistic management of Mrs. H. A. Baldwin the place was changed to a bower of beauty. In the corner where the bridal party stood were banked beautiful ferns with pillars of calla lilies and asparagus fern. Suspended from the wedding bell were streamers of white tulle. White marguerites, pink carnations and roses with pink and green lanterns were used, also immense baskets of maidenhair fern were suspended from the ceiling. A beautiful orchid hung over the piano and callas and palms were seen all through the room.

The dining room was very pretty in the Mexican creeper ferns and the sideboard banked with pink bigonias.

The parlor was decorated in roses, callas and maidenhair fern. Many beautiful gifts were sent to the young couple. One large table was full of beautiful silver, another of elegant cut glass, one of linen, one of beautiful china, while another had lovely gifts. A number of pieces in brass, also two fine rugs and furniture were also seen, showing the popularity of the young couple.

Owing to the story weather many of the invited guests were kept away, but there was a goodly gathering to wish the young couple happiness and prosperity. Mrs. H. A. Baldwin favored the company with the spring song, solo, piano and graphophone and Mr. Ault delighted everyone with two beautiful solos.

Delicious refreshments of ice cream, sherbet, cake and lemonade were served, after which the floor was cleared for dancing and a jolly time was enjoyed by all.

In the book presented to the bride by Mr. Ault, all signed their names. The happy couple were simply showered with rice and if good wishes will help them, they certainly received them. The beautiful bell was made by Mrs. Edwin Paris of Honolulu and the bouquets by Mrs. H. A. Baldwin and Mrs. Paris.

The Honolulu and Hoola Lahuli Society will hold its regular monthly meeting Wednesday morning at 10 a. m. at the Kapiolani Maternity Home. All members are requested to attend.

AMERICAN SCULPTOR OUTCHISELS EUROPEANS

Bernard's "Life of Humanity" the Sensation of Paris.

PARIS, March 15.—America is expected to furnish the sensation of the spring salon in two groups of figures representing the "Life of Humanity," which have been designed for the portals of the Pennsylvania state capitol by George Grey Bernard, the American sculptor. The groups, which consist of 35 figures from 10 to 11 feet high, are the most massive in the world.

Boucher and Lefebvre, the noted French sculptors, who are members of the jury, after a few hours' examination today, pronounced the work a wonderful success.

Boucher declared that they would take rank with the greatest works of art in the world and that it would be necessary to go back to the Greek sculptors to find such mastery of treatment. Both declared that the groups would have the position of honor at the salon.
